

BUILDING TRUST

Healthy work relationships are built on trust. Could your organization benefit from greater productivity produced by a trusting and supportive culture? Would you like to be able to depend on your colleagues? Would you like to be known as a person and/or organization of integrity?

A CULTURE OF TRUST:

- Minimizes conflict
- Allows for “intuitive” progress
- Improves productivity
- Reduces the need for over-verification
- Reduces duplication of effort
- Increases job satisfaction
- Creates a positive and supportive culture

This innovative and engaging training focused on building a culture of trust in your organization will help you identify what is needed to build a foundation of trust on your team and in your organization. You will delve into real-life scenarios as we explore the importance of trust in building a healthy, high-functioning organization.

YOU WILL LEARN:

- The importance of trust on a team and in the organization
- The impact of a lack of trust on performance
- How to build trust within your team and organization
- What happens when trust is broken
- How to rebuild trust when it has been damaged – the importance of reconciliation
- Trust building and re-building activities

A team or organization that enjoys a culture of trust has unlimited potential. A strong foundation of trust is essential for building a high-performing organization. Productive and trusting teams reduce the potential for conflict, increase satisfaction, and help your organization “fire on all cylinders.”
