

PRESENTATION SKILLS

Do you want to present with greater authority and be perceived as a great communicator? Do you want to be able to present your ideas and plans with less anxiety and more confidence? Do you want to better understand your own speaking style and how to leverage it to become unique and valued?

In this training you will learn how to present with greater power and authority. You will learn how to build your confidence in your ability to present to both small and large groups of people. In addition, you will better understand how to construct the content and use resources that will help your audience to hear you better. Using the Strata Leadership presentation delivery method, you will walk away with a proven approach and skills to immediately become a significantly better presenter.

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN HOW TO:

- Prepare for an effective presentation that meets the needs of your audience
- Demonstrate the character needed for people to listen and connect with you and your ideas
- Bring positivity and energy to your presentations
- Leverage the presentation builder worksheet to plan an effective presentation
- Use delivery techniques to engage and persuade your audience
- Practice skills to continue your development as a presenter

HOW YOUR ORGANIZATION WILL BENEFIT:

- Create communication clarity
- Improve trust
- Increase motivation and engagement
- Strengthen persuasiveness of leaders
- Accelerate action on the part of listeners
